of their group while at Globe Creek Camp. Group leaders should have on hand the names and addresses of all group participants, emergency contact names and number listing of any persons with known allergies or health conditions requiring treatment, restriction, or other special accommodations on site. Minors without a parent on site must have a signed permission form for in case emergency treatment is needed. Health forms for minors without parent onsite are provided with this contract or you may use a health form of your choosing.

Children and Youth

Groups are responsible for their participant's behavior while at GCC. All children/youth under the age of 18 are to be under the supervision of a responsible adult at all times during your stay GCC, including activities where GCC staff is providing leadership.

Cabins

When the cabins are used by your group minors are to be supervised at all times. Jumping on bunk beds and horseplay is prohibited. All activities other than resting or reading, as an example, should be cleared through GCC staff. If you need the bunks moved contact the GCC staff. Mattresses are to be left in bunks at all times. If heat is needed, the wood stoves will be started and maintained by GCC staff. Wood stove safety policies are posted in each cabin and are to be strictly followed.

Kitchen and Cleaning of Facility

The kitchen is for adults and staff only. If you are preparing your own meals please follow the food handling, cleaning and dishwashing instructions posted in the kitchen. User will be responsible for the cleaning of kitchen, sweeping of dining area, cabins and checking grounds for debris left by your group before leaving GCC.

Wood Stoves

Safety is of the utmost importance while at GCC. The wood stove in the lodge will be maintained by Error! Contact not defined. staff only. For each cabin, several people should be picked who are best qualified to stoke their wood stove. These persons will be instructed by GCC staff on how to use the stove safely. Any safety issues should be brought to the attention of camp staff so it can be checked and corrected if needed. Wood stove safety guidelines will be posted in each cabin.

Proof of Insurance

Please include a copy of your group's liability insurance coverage with your reservation form. We recommend a minimum of $500,000 Liability coverage. Globe Creek Camp should be added to your policy for length of your stay. Globe Creek Camp does not provide sickness/accident insurance. Your group leader will be required to sign a liability waiver.
